WINNER FOR EXCELLENCE IN OPERATIONAL SUPPORT

On the 29th of August, 2013, 5 personnel from Divall's Earthmoving travelled to Darwin to attend the Annual NatRoad Conference, being held over 3 days,

The Road Transport Industry is vital to the Australian economy and lifestyle, with Road Freight being the most dominant mode of transport for materials and products, that industry depends upon.

To meet the freight task, exceptional individuals are instrumental players whose commitment to the industry warrants special recognition.

Peter Waugh of Divall's Earthmoving & Bulk Haulage was nominated by his peers for Excellence in Operational Support. Peter has been responsible for the implementation of a wide variety of initiatives within the company, which have contributed in Divall's becoming a major competitor in the Bulk Haulage market, and indeed the broader industry.

Peter, (or Mingo as he is commonly referred), has always maintained a leadership role within the Organisation, and his years of experience have seen him become a mentor to junior personnel as well as a leader amongst his peers.

Peter has consistently displayed a high level of commitment to the road transport industry, and his passion for this area of the business, has seen him spend 15 active years within the Bulk Haulage Department Operations. He was an influential and key team member in the successful implementation of Trucksafe Program into Divall's Organisation.

Divall's Management and Staff would like to extend a warm Congratulations to Peter for winning this prestigious title and thank him for his dedication and hard work for over 22 years.
